

Sample collection information

Samples were collected using Giggenbach flasks. These glass flasks (250ml volume) contain approx. 60 ml NaOH solution. To introduce the samples into the flasks a titanium tube or funnel was placed in the gas vent or spring and connected to the flasks via silicone rubber tubing or Tygon tubing.